Filter – IPC/CPC – Select Layer

In the filter you can now select the appropriate layer for the IPC and CPC classes.

Therefore it should be possible to analyze results faster.

The screenshot shows a 'Filter' dialog box with a 'Side-Bar' on the left. The dialog is divided into two sections: 'IPC' and 'CPC'. Each section has a 'Layer' dropdown menu and a list of items with their counts and percentages.

Improvements

- Detailed view - information about the application is now grouped

The screenshot shows a web interface for patent details. At the top, there are tabs: 'Biblio. info.' (selected), 'Abstract / Claims', 'Description', 'Document links', and 'Additional Fields'. Below the tabs, the information is grouped into sections: 'Priority' (07/04/2003 DE 10316012 A1, 26/03/2004 WO 2004089734 A1), 'Published' (04/01/2006 EP 1611002 A1, 20/06/2007 EP 1611002 B1, 26/03/2004 EP 04723537), 'Countries' (Dead: BE DE FR IT NL), 'Changed owner' (SCHAEFFLER K.G.), 'Applicant (1)' (SCHAEFFLER KG), 'Inventor (1)' (SPERBER, MATTHIAS), 'IPC (4)' (B62K 25/28 F16C 19/36), 'CPC (6)' (B62K 25/286 F16C 19/361), and 'Bck. Cit.' (EXA: 1 ISR: 4). A blue box highlights the 'Published' section. A tooltip 'Patent specification' is shown over the information icon next to the second published entry.

- o Description text of the KD is displayed as tool tip (i)
- Graphical analyses can now be exported in landscape or portrait format as PDF
- Patent Numbers Import - entered patent numbers can be copied (thus, e.g. all wrong numbers can be copied quickly by using a filter)
- Excel export limit with activated option Images is now at 500 (above 500 the loading time for Excel file creation was too long)

Bug fixes

- Result list - When opening a new result list, the first patent in the list was not selected correctly. Opening the detail view via the menu or assigning the patent to folders was not possible (the patent had to be deselected and selected again)
- Graphical Analysis - If you selected a large number of applicants in a single applicant analysis and then exported the analysis as a PDF, the diagram was not fully visible in the PDF
